

Do you still need to fulfill your “W” course requirement?

Look no further than the Department of Anthropology! We will offer W courses that also fulfill other Content Area 2 and 4 general education requirements during both Summer Sessions 1 & 2.

Summer Session 1:

June 3, 2019-July 5, 2019

ANTH 1000W Other People’s Worlds: A survey of the development, contributions, and contemporary social problems of selected non-Euro American peoples and cultures.

MoWe 9:00am-1:00pm

ANTH 2000W Social Anthropology: A comparative study of social structure including an analysis of kinship, marriage, community organization, political and economic institutions, and the role of the individual in these institutions. MoWe 9:00am-12:30pm

Summer Session 2:

July 15, 2019-August 16, 2019

ANTH 1000W Other People’s Worlds: A survey of the development, contributions, and contemporary social problems of selected non-Euro American peoples and cultures.

TuTh 9:00am-1:00pm

Registration begins March 25, 2019.

Seats are limited, so enroll early!